A WORD TO CLUB MEMBERS

From the Chairman

AS most members already know, our Secretary, Mr. Dawson, has resigned.

ON the eve of his cessation of office, the Committee entertained him at dinner and presented him on behalf of the members with a cheque for a substantial amount by way of retiring allowance and in appreciation of the valuable services he rendered to the club over a period of some 34 years.

* * *

THE Committee appreciates the co-operation and forbearance of members during the unavoidable inconvenience caused by the extensive renovations to the club.

The Swimming Pool and Athletic Department have already been completed and many members have expressed their appreciation of the results achieved.

Work on the first and second floors and club room is well under way, and special efforts are being made to complete such work as early as possible, and with a minimum of inconvenience to members.

* * *

THE Centenary Committee has approved a programme for the Centenary race meeting to be held on May 10, 1958, including a Centenary Gold Cup (£3,500) and a trophy valued at £300.).

This Committee has invited the appropriate sub-committees to co-operate by formulating competitions in bowls, billiards and snooker, swimming, handball, cards and dominoes.

It is also proposed to hold a Centenary Ball, and a picnic for children of members, and a Showboat Evening.

FROM OVERSEAS

CAPTAIN G. D. POUND, commanding officer of the New Zealand ship, Royalist, forwarded this letter to the secretary:

"I should be pleased if you would convey to the chairman, committee and members of your club my grateful thanks for your kindness in granting my officers and myself honorary membership during our stay in Sydney.

"It was indeed an honour and a pleasure which was greatly enjoyed by us all."

The Wardroom Mess Secretary of the Royalist, Lieutenant-Commander John Goldsmith, also sent a letter.

It read: "Would you please convey the thanks of the officers to your chairman and members for all the club facilities they so kindly offered us.

"They were indeed very much appreciated, and we all wish we could have stayed longer in Sydney."

* * *

SECRETARY of the New York Athletic Club, Mr. Alfred Foster, wrote to tell us of a letter he had received from one of his members, Mr. J. W. LaRocque.

Mr. LaRocque had said: "I wish to advise with considerable pleasure that I have recently returned from a stay in Australia, and was privileged to be in residence at our associate club, Tattersall's Club, Sydney.

HEARD AROUND THE CLUB

W. I. HILL turned 70 on July 16. We were surprised to hear that W.I. is a twin. His twin-sister is Mrs. F. M. Parker, of Frizinghall, Great Britain. W.I. had intended to go from Sydney to Frizinghall to make the birthday a double-celebration. But his wife was ill, and they could not make the trip. W.I. is the nephew of Bradford industrialist, the late Sir James Hill. W.I.'s twin-sister, Mrs. Parker, is the widow of the late Mr. F. M. Parker, former head of the Customs and Excise in Bradford. Mrs. Parker and W.I. had twin great-uncles. They are themselves twins. Now Mrs. Parker has twin grand-daughters.

* * *

A PART from the fact that they are both members of Tattersall's Club, Brendan Dowling and Harold Quinton have the following in common. Each recently won the £12,000 lottery. They are both bachelors. Each is a chartered accountant. Their offices are in the same block in Castlereagh Street.

* * *

REG MARTYR, manager of the Sydney branch of the Bank of Adelaide, is in Royal North Shore Hospital after having undergone an operation. His many friends in this club wish Reg a speedy recovery.

* * *

ADOLPH BASSER was warmly congratulated over the recent Randwick success of his very promising sprinter, My Kingdom. Before the race Adolph was not 100 per cent. confident, fearing the colt might have "gone off" a little. My Kingdom won only narrowly, but the win was performed in the gamest possible style.

* * *

DOMINOES isn't played in the club these days to the same extent as it was years ago. We asked Charlie Young to name the best dominoes player in Tattersall's history. Without hesitation, Charlie plumped for Sammy Block. "Really clever" was the way Charlie described Sammy's efforts. By the way, Charlie isn't too bad himself.

FAMOUS New Zealand trainer, Jack Cameron—one of the oldest members of our club—had his 80th birthday, on July 12, in hospital. Jack was "tickled pink" to get a congratulatory telegram from Tattersall's Club. Cyril Brook—staying at the club during his present visit from New Zealand—says Jack wishes to be remembered to his numerous friends here. Jack is renowned as the owner-trainer of that former great galloper, The Hawk. Despite his age, Jack still holds a trainer's licence. Many, many years ago Jack slipped on a wet step after getting out of our swimming-pool. A special rail was erected to help prevent a similar recurrence. It soon got the nickname "Cameron's Rail."

JIM Nagel down from Queensland for a fortnight or so, looking exceptionally fit. Jim and four others recently caught 900 lb. of snapper in three hours' of fishing 12 miles off Surfers' Paradise. Average weight was 8 lb. Jim has a luxury home at Surfers', and gets visits from his numerous Southern friends whenever they are up that way. His old galloper, Prince Crag, is still going strong. Now 10 years old, Prince Crag wins his share of races on Queensland country tracks.

LIONEL Israel won't part with his new French sire, Pan II, despite huge overseas offers. Lionel got Pan II after the horse had served only a light season in France. Out of Pan II's first French crop came four winners, including Altipan. The latter went on to success in the Grand Prix de Paris. French breeders quickly realised that a prize had slipped through their fingers, and they tried to buy Pan II back from Lionel, to no avail. Pan II's first Australian progeny will be offered at next year's Easter yearling sales.

* * *

SEEN in the club dining-room—Bill and Mrs. Laforest dancing the rhumba; Carl and Mrs. Mitchell enjoying themselves; the same with Dr. and Mrs. Seymour; S. E. A. Holland attended with a small party of friends, as did Dr. Diamond, Dr Williams and Wal Purss.

* * *

THE Committee received a letter from an outside organisation thanking Tattersall's Club staff for the excellent quality of the food and service when the organisation recently tendered a private dinner to one of our members.

* * *

LANCE NOAKES is one of the club's most regular "Saturday-Nighters" in the dining-room. He is, therefore, a club member in the real sense of the word.

* * *

DAN CASEY celebrated his birthday in the club on July 13.

* * *

OUR thanks go to Mr. Colin Jones for kindly supplying a short film, which was screened in the club room on June 26. It was part of the "film-night" in which Olympic coach Frank Guthrie commented on "Glimpses of the Olympic Games" and the evolution of swimming.

* * *

WATCHING W. I. Hill and Stan Chaterton play snooker is a treat. Last month Stan was in great form. But "W.I." had a quick alibi. "It's the Jack Johnson-Tommy Burns fight all over again," said "W.I." "Stan keeps me waiting half an hour between strokes, and unnerves me." Can you imagine it!

* * *

MICK NIMENSKI arranged a party in the club—the occasion being Mrs. Nimenski's birthday.

P. B. BYRNE in St. Vincent's Hospital.

* * *

R. E. FORTESQUE off to England and America.

* * *

J. WARS—going overseas.

* * *

JOE HARRIS heard from America that Prince Morvi chipped a bone in his off-foreleg. A veterinary surgeon operated, and the horse is back in work. Incidentally, Joe's American contacts report that Knave is going great guns over there. The horse ran badly in three races on the dirt. Then he was shipped to Delaware, where he won on the grass, and he hasn't looked back since.

* * *

MR. AND MRS. TIM BERLYN seen enjoying themselves at their usual table in the dining-room.

* * *

STAN STEWART back on deck after three weeks in hospital.

* * *

SAM BROWN and party had a great time at a Thursday night get-together in the dining-room.

EXPERT'S PRAISE FOR TODMAN

By C. J. GRAVES of the Daily and Sunday Telegraph

HOW does Todman compare with champion two-year-olds of the past?

He has completed his two-year-old season with five wins from six starts.

Perhaps the best to be picked to represent a measuring stick are Mollison (1928), Heroic (1924), All Love (1941) and Gold Rod (1936) in that order of merit.

With excusable caution, Todman can be proclaimed better than these.

Excusable, because, when we all lauded him as greatest two-year-old speedster ever seen, down he went in a fluke defeat by Tulloch in the Randwick A.J.C. Sires' Produce Stakes.

To prove that the Sires Produce must have been a fluke, he defeated Tulloch five days later by six lengths in the Champagne.

The Sires' Produce defeat just served to prove that when any horse is hailed as a champion, a snare waits just round the corner.

If you take times, Todman is the outstanding two-year-old champion of all time.

For his first success over five furlongs he ran 57 4/5 secs., an Australasian record.

He won by 10 lengths.

For a first start by any young racehorse it was phenomenal.

When he beat Tulloch in the Champagne he ran six furlongs in 1.10.

Only previous two-year-old to run such time was All Love.

Later Todman won over six furlongs against older horses, and his 1.11 2/5 was a race-record for that track.

To revert to Mollison, the first of the mighty two-year-olds.

WAS HE THE BEST 2-YR-OLD EVER?

He won seven out of seven at that age and £17,343 in stakes, a record sum for a two-year-old. He never won a race by a great margin, and never ran swift times, perhaps because he always won in a canter.

Tulloch last season eclipsed Mollison's prize money record.

Heroic was one of Australia's mightiest horses, who won 21 races, including a

Derby and a Newmarket, with 9-8, in best company and £38,000 in stakes.

Then he became the greatest sire of stake-winners for five years.

How he did all this is anybody's guess, because at two years he had an exacting season.

For instance, he started in a race at Caulfield in 1924, was backed down to favouritism with 10-2 on a heavy track.

All Love was easily the best two-year-old filly ever to race in Australia.

In 1940 she won the Gimcrack (fillies only) in Sydney to set a new five-furlong record, 58 1/2 sec.

Three weeks later she repeated this time in winning the Maribyrnong Plate against colts up the exacting Flemington straight.

She is the only Australian two-year-old filly to run the 1.10, equalled last April by Todman for six furlongs.

Gold Rod was a marvellous two-year-old galloper who showed the speed to win the classics by big margins, just like Todman.

He won the V.R.C. Sires by six lengths from crack filly of the year, Fidelity.

Carefully raced by A.J.C. Committee-man E. J. Watt, and trained by Geo Price, he won the 1937 Epsom with 9-3 and the 1939 Doncaster with 9-2, and also our Chelmsford Stakes (nine furlongs) as a three-year-old with a penalty.

Whether Todman proves a stayer and whether he will go on to performances measurable with these with increasing age remains to be seen.

But, to sum up, I rate him as the best two-year-old I have seen in 40 years of racing.

LAD'S BID TO AVENGE LANDY

[By a Club Member, who believes the coming year in athletics could be our best yet.]

A 19-YEARS-OLD West Australian lad is determined to recapture the world mile-record for Australia.

His name: Herb Elliott.

John Landy held the world record, 3 min. 58 sec.

But now England's Derek Ibbotson has lowered the mark to 3 min. 57.2 sec.

According to famous Austrian coach, Franz Stamfl, Elliott, of all the world's milers, has the best potential to lower Ibbotson's figures.

There is no question about Elliott's ability or his consistency.

Elliott was a champion schoolboy athlete, but one schoolboy-race nearly spelt "finish" to his running career.

In it, Elliott broke a bone in a foot.

Elliott went to Melbourne last October, and Percy Cerutti, who had a hand in Landy's early training, began to take an interest in coaching the West Australian youngster.

The result was amazing.

After a couple of "warm up" runs, Elliott covered six successive miles in times ranging from 4 min. 4.4 sec. to 4 min. 6.8 sec.

He won the South Australian title, the Victorian mile (defeating Merv. Lincoln) and the New South Wales championship at Moore Park cinder track (defeating our Olympic 5,000-metres representative, Albert Thomas).

Then the eyes of the world were turned upon Elliott, because, in winning the Australian mile title in Melbourne last March, he clocked 4 min. 0.4 sec.—a truly great effort.

Elliott, who is back in Perth, refused invitations to tour Scandinavia and America this coming summer.

He prefers to concentrate here on gaining a place in the Australian Empire Games squad to visit Wales next July. Elliott is tall, with a style of running very similar to that of Landy.

He also possesses great early speed—a decided advantage whenever he wants to sprint around to take up a handy position.

Elliott could also set sensational figures for the 880 yards within the next 12 months.

He won this event at the last Australian championships, and his time, 1 min. 49.3 sec., was a new Australian native record.

Elliott's comparative time would have won every Olympic Games 800-metres title, with the exception of the last one, in Melbourne last November.

AND PORTER

Let's not forget "Chilla" Porter while we are discussing Australian athletes with big ambitions.

Porter has his heart set on jumping seven feet.

If he succeeds, he will be the first Australian to do so.

Porter had a fairly imposing record, but nobody gave him much chance in the last Olympic Games high-jump.

But remember that epic struggle in near-darkness, which had tens of thousands of spectators almost breathless?

Sure, Porter could finish only second. But it took world record-holder, American Negro Charlie Dumas, to lower Porter's colours.

And Porter, relishing the "big occasion," confounded even his fondest admirers by producing a leap of 6 ft. 10½ ins.—his best ever.

Dumas, whose best performance is 7 ft. 0½ in., no longer holds the world record.

That honour belongs to the Russian, Stepanov (what a delightfully apt name), who cleared 7 ft. 1 in.

Porter has a black mark, seven feet high, on one of the bedroom walls of his Queensland home.

Whenever he enters, he kicks as high as he can towards the mark.

With Porter, seven feet is like the sound-barrier.

At the moment it presents a mental hazard.

If he can break it once, he might be able to set a world record that will stand for many years. ♦

Barry will come back to Australia after spending another year at the Michigan Institute of Technology. "Bon" made a tour of important American centres. The section of the Cleveland Chamber of Commerce which controls the city's buildings invited "Bon" to luncheon, and prevailed upon him to deliver a lecture. "Bon" said on his return to Sydney that Australia was now very advanced in methods of construction. On previous trips to the United States he had gained numerous startling ideas by investigating American methods. This time "Bon" said he had learned a few things, but not quite as much as previously.

GREAT to see E. K. White win at Rosehill with his three-year-old filly, Golden Sherry, after a series of minor placings. This chestnut, by Damnos (Fr) from Decanter, is aptly named. Many people thought it was an omen when they saw the Stars and Stripes fluttering freely in the breeze on the Rosehill course. They superstitiously backed Golden Sherry because E. K. is president of the Australian-American Association.

KEITH MACKAY'S horse, Sonic, finished fourth in Golden Sherry's race. The gelding is trained by Fred Cush, and it is interesting to recall the long racing association between the Mackay family and the Cush's. Before Fred was born, his father was training for Keith Mackay's father. In Fred's 51 years of training, he says he has always had at least one Mackay horse in the stable.

* * *

FRED PAUL has just returned from Western Australia where he saw the new jack-pot tote scheme in action. Fred is most enthusiastic about the idea. He reckons it has stimulated great interest among racegoers over there, and might put the sport right on its feet. When the jackpot scheme was operating, Fred said there weren't nearly as many people in the betting-shops on race-days. He says, if introduced here, the "jackpot" will be a tremendous aid to Sydney racing.

ESCALATORS

SYDNEY • MELBOURNE • ADELAIDE • BRISBANE • PERTH • HOBART • NEWCASTLE

There's no doubt Otis Escalators have an enthusiastic following—particularly on race days. In other countries the public long ago realised they make a day of leisure more enjoyable, and prominent courses all over the world now feature many Otis Escalators. Why? Because they improved attendances, they moved people faster, easier without causing traffic jams and indirectly increased takings. What Otis Escalators have done overseas they can do here.

The Otis Escalator can meet the need for increased activity wherever it is installed. It is continually in use and always coaxes people to go where you want them to go. You'll have more people on the course with Otis Escalators in use.

MAKE USE OF YOUR FOURTH-FLOOR LOUNGES

The beautiful coffee-lounge on Tattersall's Club's fourth floor

After an evening-show in town, why not drop up to Tattersall's Club's fourth-floor lounges until midnight.

You can take advantage of both the coffee-lounge and the lounge-bar.

In the coffee-lounge, sandwiches and light refreshments are available in wonderfully restful surroundings.

The coffee, freshly ground, is the finest imported brand.

Service by the stewards is swift, yet unobtrusive.

The seating is so comfortable that guests relax completely.

Tastefully carpeted, and boasting bright, attractive curtaining, the lounges possess ultra-modern lighting.

A telephone-service, for the convenience of members, is installed in both lounges.

From Mondays to Fridays, inclusive, the lounges are open from noon until 3 p.m., and from 5 p.m. until midnight.

On Saturdays they are open from 5 p.m. until midnight.

Tattersall's Club's lounge-bar is exceptionally popular. A world-range of liqueurs is on hand.

Members entertain their guests with cocktails in the lounge before taking them into the club's dining-room for luncheon or dinner.

21 YEARS AGO

THE following details were published in Tattersall's Club's magazine of August, 1936.

The chairman was W. W. Hill, the treasurer was S. E. Chatterton, while the committee comprised H. C. Bartley, G. Chiene, B. Jolley, G. Marlow, J. H. O'Dea, J. A. Roles, W. J. Smith and F. G. Underwood.

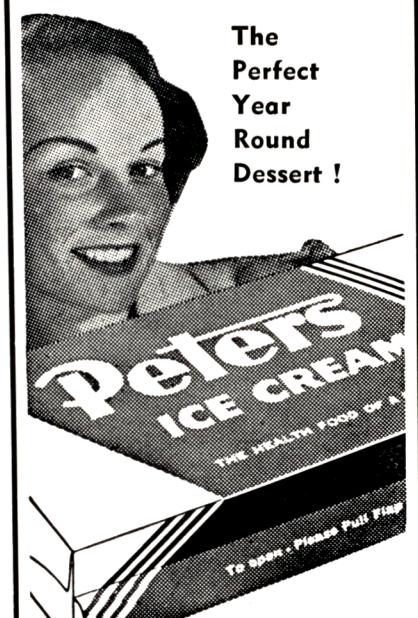

Prince Tugi, Consort of Queen Salote of Tonga, and Prime Minister of Tonga, was visiting the club at that time.

Bill Longworth was elected a vice-president of the Billiards and Control Council (Eng.). He was only the second person outside England to be thus honoured.

Walter Lindrum delighted members when he demonstrated the art of break-building.

In swimming, Sammy Block gained absolute possession of the Dewar Cup. He had topped the points-score in both the 1934-35 and 1935-36 seasons.

At handball, Alf Rainbow narrowly won the John Searcy Cup from E. T. Penfold.

TAKE A BRICK HOME
TO-DAY

Arthur Bull's Brilliant Break in Club Billiards Tournament

CHAMPION cueist Arthur Bull made a break of 135 in one of his early rounds of the club's billiards tournament.

The break enabled Arthur, who was owing 180, to defeat Stan Chatterton (receives 115) by 250 to 226.

Another thrilling match was the Ken Fidden-George Mousally episode.

Ken (receives 115) was on 249 when George (owes 20) was 200.

George made a break of 49, and looked certain of winning, but he narrowly missed a cannon. Ken "went out" next shot, winning by 250 to 249.

Sam Peters (rec. 90) was in top form against Jack Shaw (rec. 120). The match attracted a big gallery, but Sam was too good on the day, getting there by 250 to 207.

Larry Howarth (rec. 105) never had anything in reserve when he beat Ted Davis (rec. 75) by 250 to 228.

Then Bob Mead caused one of the shocks of the tournament to account for Arthur Miller. Bob—one of our veteran trainers—can always be relied to spring an occasional shock on the racecourse, but no one expected him to win by 250 to 166. Arthur was handicapped on 30, compared with Bob's 125. With Bob in such fine touch, Arthur never had a hope of making up the leeway.

Claude Moore was not overawed by the fact that he was facing up to last year's champion, Eric Westhoff. Eric won by 250 to 222, but he had to fight every inch of the way.

Alec Lash gave possibly his best performance in a Tattersall's Club billiards tournament to defeat Jack Eaton by 250 to 240. Jack had 60 the worse of the handicaps.

Other close matches were Boyd Lane's 250-241 win over Roy Brooks and John O'Riordan's 250-221 success over J. V. Maloney. It was O'Riordan's first victory in either snooker or billiards after several years in these tournaments, and he was heartily congratulated on all sides for his change of luck.

Being on a hard mark does not seem to trouble Bill Longworth. He was owing 80 against Dave Cohen (rec. 95) but struck his hopples right from the jump, and had no difficulty in winning by 250 to 175.

Joe Harris and Eric Westhoff were both handicapped on 50, and the result of their match proved the handicappers' judgment correct. Eric won by 250 to 232, and it was only in the last couple of minutes that he gained a clear ascendancy.

SNOOKER

J. A. Williams knows now just how unlucky you can be in a game of snooker.

He potted the pink and "won" his match against Arthur Bull.

Arthur was turning around to congratulate "J.A." when the white ball rolled gently into a pocket.

The game "started" again, and Arthur made no mistake this time, winning by 89 to 82. He had been handicapped on scratch, with Williams on 50.

Larry Howarth, who is a great cueist, played his usual hard, tough game against J. V. Maloney, but Maloney adopted the same tactics and won 87-67.

Few people gave Claude Moore a million-to-one chance of beating Roy Brooks. When he won, Claude was just as surprised as the onlookers. Still, it was an extra good performance to down such an exponent of the art as Roy. Incidentally, Roy was a bit upset before the game, and it could have had some bearing on the result. Through a typist's error, Roy thought, from one of the original sheets, that he was handicapped on 50. Then he was told that he would have to play off his correct mark, 40. Claude was on 60.

Lachie Melville was "on the bit" in the middle stages of his match against D. D. Sheedy, but faded near the post to be beaten 97-104.

F. J. Brennan gave the highly-rated Ken Fidden a shock. Ken "scrambled" home by 103 to 97, and the result could have been the reverse.

J. H. Farrer made his first appearance in one of our tournaments. He impressed with his smooth cueing in defeating Len Burke 94-89.

Harold Hill was in deadly form against M. O. Larkins. Harold played a couple of shots which would have tested Joe Davis. The victory was quite comfortable —120 to 64.

A lot of "knowledgeable" people had Len Catts as a "rod-in-pickle." But he had to call on all his tricks to beat Jack Pick 95-87.

A. S. Gordon, off the nice handicap of 60, accounted for Stuart Adams 106-87. It was an interesting tussle, with Alan playing splendidly, and Stuart not having the best of luck.

Judge Holden left the barrier like Court Slipper in his battle with Jack Shaw, and soon held a commanding lead. But Jack is never beaten, and with a couple of balls to be potted, he was right on the Judge's hammer.

Then the Judge potted a great black, and the game was over. It was voted

TED FORREST'S TRIP

TINY RACE-CLUB OFFERS PRIZE WORTH MORE THAN MELB. CUP

DO you think the Melbourne Cup is the richest racing-trophy in Australia?

Well, you're wrong.

The Melbourne Cup may carry most prizemoney.

But, as far as the trophy is concerned, that honour goes to the race club at Marree—a tiny township in South Australia.

Club-member Ted Forrest, who is keenly interested in all aspects of racing, explained about the Marree Club on his return from an extensive tour of the district.

Prizemoney for the Marree Cup is only £63.

But the trophy is a new Land Rover, insured and filled with petrol, and valued at nearly £1,300.

When an owner enters a horse for the Marree Cup, the club offers to lay him £500 to £50 that his horse can't win it.

It is optional whether the owner accepts the bet or not.

Although prizemoney for the Cup is only £63, the winning jockey's percentage is just on £70. This comes about because the jockey receives five per cent. of the total value of the prize, including the £1,300 trophy.

During his trip, Ted visited Balaklava, 70 miles north of Adelaide.

He was previously there in 1911 when he saw the little mare, Aurie (by Pistol). Aurie was the great-grand-dam of Aurie's Star, holder of the Australasian six-furlongs record of 1 min. 8½ sec.

On his present trip, Ted won a race at Balaklava with his Nilo colt, Revived, who used to race in Sydney.

Maiden races there are run under weight-for-age conditions. Ted thinks this scheme has a lot to commend it.

At Balaklava Ted met Gawler trainer, W. T. Edwards, who won 18 races in four weeks, including six on the first day of the Marree meeting, and four on the second day.

Edwards said he had a very high opinion of his jockey, J. Bourke, who rode 24 winners in the same four weeks. Edwards said he had prepared 540 winners since he began training.

one of the most thrilling games of the series.

P. O. Blau, making his first appearance in a tournament, hardly made a mistake in scoring a 100-63 victory over E. K. White.

Then came the shock of the tournament. Syd Lane was unofficial favourite for the title. But on the day he was no match for the "giant-killer," Cec Chambers. Cec (rec. 50) defeated Syd (30) by 101 to 59. He surprised with his ability to set a couple of magnificent snookers.

Another good performance by a back-marker was that of Johnny Norton (10) in his 80-64 success against Ted Davis (35).

Keep an eye on John Peoples in this tournament. He's going great guns. Off a handicap of 37, John defeated Mr. Justice Dovey (55) by 136 to 69.

How's this for scoring—141 in the one game. Jack Eaton (30) defeated Judge Holden (60) by 128 to 103.

Les Haigh continues to win in the minor rounds. He loves the games, and if he ever wins the title it will be a popular result. This time Les beat Len Palfreyman 87-70.

Now enters the tournament's "mystery-man"—John Vandenberg. It was a case of write-your-own-ticket when he faced up to Alan Howarth. But John, with a broad smile on his face and without a worry in the world, won by 86 to 73.

Hans Robertson (rec. 5) had to give 55 start to Claude Moore. He made it—by 96 to 89—but Claude might have been the victor with a turn of fortune's wheel.

Another shock—Senator Armstrong (55) defeating Ken Fidden (32) by 120 to 70. The Senator—playing particularly well for a man on his handicap—never looked like losing.

ANOTHER BIG WIN FOR TATTERSALL'S

IN the final of the Spurway Trophy at Newport on July 3 Tattersall's bowlers had another major victory — once again against Pymble.

This time the result was never in doubt as we led clearly throughout.

The final scores were 84 to 64.

Results were as follows:—

F. Empson, E. A. Davis, J. Eaton, H. Hill (Tattersall's) d. E. A. Francis, F. Aaron, R. Washington, G. Lumby (Pymble), 30-17.

J. Keogh, J. Pick, P. J. Schwarz, J. Kellaway (Tattersall's) d. F. S. L. Lane, A. Lewin, G. Penny, J. Gascoigne (Pymble), 29-17.

J. Shaffran, K. Williams, K. Ranger, J. O'Neill (Tattersall's), lost to C. Mitchinson, A. Duncan, C. Scrivenor, W. Hogarth (Pymble), 25-30.

All Tattersall's representatives played solidly, but the two outstanding players were Jack Kellaway and Jack Shaffran.

At the presentation of trophies at the palatial Newport Clubhouse, Jack Kellaway suitably responded on our behalf.

He congratulated our chief selector, Ken Williams, on his selection of teams.

Ken responded in a most practical manner by inviting all present to have a drink with the winners.

This was the conclusion of a particularly enjoyable outing for those who were fortunate to be selected.

We are all looking forward to an invitation from Newport next year.

On Sunday, June 30, we were again the guests of the Warrawee Bowling Club.

The teams were not selected, but were by invitation.

We played in a pairs game 18 a side, and were well and truly beaten.

Only one of our teams was successful, while another played a draw.

Most other games were close, but Jack O'Neill and Reg Bartley had all the breaks against them, going down 29 to 6.

The only successful team was Wal Hutchinson and "Bricky" Williams, who beat Bill Longworth and J. Mackay 22 to 18.

Ken Ranger and Jack Pick played suberbative bowls to draw 22-all with P. Harris and L. Paris.

"Talking Turkey"

Again we were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Longworth for drinks and buffet.

What the boys did to Bill's turkey was nobody's business.

Emmo, carving at top speed, could not cope with the pace set by all.

Jack Shaffran took the honours with the food, while Ted Thorn also gave a good account of himself.

"Swannie" Schwarz was making good progress, but ran foul of the carving knife, trying to shoulder Ted Thorn out of the carcase.

A most enjoyable day concluded at 8 p.m., and full honours must go to Mrs.

Longworth and Bill for being such charming hosts.

An invitation was extended for the last Sunday in August and is being eagerly awaited.

At Double Bay on June 28, 42 players participated in our Trophy-Triples, the winners being Jack Phillips, Roscoe Ball and Cedric Emanuel.

Winners of the Losers' Trophy were Jack Davis, R. Darch and George Mannoch.

Another good roll-up took place on Thursday, July 4th—again 42 players being present.

Trophy winners were Fred Pounting, Vic Bear and Frank Ahern.

The Runners-up Trophy went to Ted Thorn, Bert Levey and W. Burns.

Big Roll-up

The incentive to win a small trophy creates much more interest in the game. Hence the big roll-up, which is very encouraging to the organisers.

Also the early 1.30 p.m. start is being observed by all.

It enables bowlers to play their game out, although it is invariably near dark when the final is finished.

It's good to see some old faces back again bowling each Thursday.

They include "Senator" Johnny Gibbs and Fred Pointing, who celebrated his return with a trophy win.

Jovial John Fuller—back from a trip to the United States—is with us again.

Frank Ahern also collected a trophy by good bowls on his return after a short absence.

Allan Turner is playing with us after a good performance to be runner-up in the North Shore singles championship.

A hearty welcome to new members in Vince Kirby and Peter Farley. Vince has not missed a day since he joined. Keep it up, Vince.

George Lewis is back bowling with us after seven months' enforced idleness due to a car accident when going to the Olympic Games.

He stepped out with us for the first time on Thursday, July 4. He had an easy workout as lead, but judging by both his looks and form he will soon be in his usual place as the strength of the team.

In State Team

Harold Hill—fresh from his victory over Albert Newton in the City Club's singles championship—has once again been chosen to represent the State against Queensland.

Harold's effort to win 31-30 was acclaimed to be one of the finest games ever seen in the history of the club championship.

Sam Peters is also showing good form. He won the minor championship at the City Bowling Club a few weeks ago, and has been selected by the N.S.W. selectors in the last two Metropolitan teams.

On Thursday, July 11, Social Trophy Triples attracted a good field of 32.

Trophy winners: V. Kirby, J. Keogh, E. A. Davis.

Runners-up Trophy: E. Thorn, J. Shaffran, E. Abbott.

COMING FIXTURE: 17th Sept.—Seven-Rinks: Tattersall's v. Police, at Double Bay, 12 noon.

Interruption to Swim Title

THE club champion and "Native Son" Trophy-winner should have been known by now.

But the fates, in the shape of numerous painters and artisans, intervened in the pool, and so now August will see those decisions made.

The position at time of writing was that the final of the Brace Relay Handicap of July 2 and a 40 yards handicap had still to be held, with the club championship a week later to wind up the season.

It looks as if the contest for the "Native Son" 1956-57 Trophy is cut and dried, mainly owing to the misfortune of Keith Longworth in seeing his Brace Relay partner, Malcolm Fuller, disqualified for going before his time.

At that time Keith was only three points behind Arthur Alsop with two races to go, and Fuller was so keen on giving partner Longworth every chance that he misjudged his start and clearly "broke."

Before Time

In the next heat the result of the big contest was put almost beyond doubt when Col Bowes went before his time.

With partner John Dexter, Col was "blown out," allowing Alsop and Kay to win the heat.

Longworth's "write your own ticket" chance of tieing with Alsop is for the latter to swim unplaced in the final of the Brace and in the heats of the last race of the season, and for the former to win heat and final of the 40 yards dash.

Clive Hoole must be third in the "Native Son" and it's between Jim Comans and Les Bear for fourth.

Harold Herman lost a second in the last 40 yards in June but, despite that, he's in the final of the Brace and has a nice lead of two and a half points in the June-July-August Point Score.

They say that Jim Comans and Fred Harvie are just itching for the new season to start in October, when they feel that their pleas for "just one more second" will be heeded by the Handicapper.

Few Hints

George Goldie has been having a few hints from Olympic coach Sam Herford, who says that our veteran member is the best trier he has ever seen.

It's good to note the record-breaking performances of Jon Henricks, Lorraine Crapp and Dawn Fraser overseas. Tattersall's Club has a special interest in these three Olympic champions as they all trained in our pool for the Melbourne Olympics.

Olympic coach Frank Guthrie, at a film-show and lecture in the clubroom recently, claimed that, contrary to general opinion, Australian champion swimmers have a typical style of their own, just as the Japanese and United States swimmers have theirs.

A long through-arm-pull, slow stroke and gentler leg-beat without splash are three of the characteristics of all our champions, he claims, and certainly his films bore out his contentions. It was a Club show that was well worth seeing.

Surfers' Paradise seems to hold many attractions for our Swimming Club members. In recent months many of the boys have been north and we understand that Clive Hoole will soon make his home there. Clive will be missed, but it's a safe bet that he'll find his way to the Pool at least a week in every month.

Club committeeman Alf Collins has again donated the trophies for the 40 yards club championship, which is down for decision this month. Thanks, Alf, for your generosity.

As usual, the race should be a good one for the minor placings. Bill Kendall appears to have a mortgage on the title, but former champion Malcolm Fuller will have his work cut out to head Leigh Bowes, Dave Cathels, Ross Stanford, Keith Longworth and Geoff Laforest, to name but a few, for second place.

Results:—

Handball Official Enjoys Short Break

THE handball notes last month were headed "Handball Events at Interesting Stage."

This is a true description of the handball championship competition.

Unfortunately for handball competitors, events have been postponed whilst extensive repairs to the third floor have been carried out.

But it is realised by everybody that the Committee is organising an essential and wonderful job of painting and renovating, which will be to the benefit of every member in the long run.

Before closing down, we were able to complete one more important match between Eddie Davis and Geoff Eastment.

This match was expected to have a great bearing on the eventual winner of the club championship.

Eddie is a past-champion and was recognised as having a very good show.

Geoff is one of the up-and-coming brigade and was expected to extend his opponent fully.

It was not to be, however.

Geoff commenced well and was leading 10-5 in the first set.

But from that point his game fell away, and Eddie clearly was the master.

I do not remember seeing Eddie play so well as he did in this match.

The final scores of 21-12, 21-9 is a true indication of the result.

This was the last match before the close-down.

In spite of the "cessation" our members did not lose their enthusiasm, and some secret training has been going on.

Peter Lindsay, Fred Harvie and Bill Kirwan have been going to the Domain and Coogee for some private "gallops."

I went along to Coogee one day, and was pleased to renew my acquaintance with Jack Giles and Frank Kanowsky.

Both Peter Lindsay and Fred Harvie had some nice work-outs, followed by a swim in the rock pool, with the temperature round the 55 mark.

Personally I had a hot sea-bath.

We might lose these chaps to the Iceberg Club if we do not watch out.

The close-down of the third floor has been a great thing for me.

It has enabled me to visit other floors

more regularly in my lunch hour, and to renew acquaintance with members whom I had become inclined to neglect.

I have lunched at the same table as Claude Parker, Bill Mulligan, Mannie Lyons, Claude Moore and Frank Tinworth.

I have had a friendly drink with Des Collins, Edwin and Norman Penfold, Alf Collins and Bill Sellen.

I have talked with Joe Harris, Clive Hoole, Sam Peters, Mick Nimenski, Bill Longworth, Len Palfreyman, Boyd Lane and many others.

In fact, I think that the close-down of the third floor did me a lot of good. It enabled me to meet people again.

To end on a pleasant note. I noticed a nice thing in the Club a couple of Saturday nights back. Carl Phillips, our prominent swimmer entertaining his mother with a nice party to celebrate her birthday.

JIMMY CARRUTHERS HAS NO REGRETS ON RETIREMENT

JIMMY CARRUTHERS has one of the finest sporting records of all Tattersall's Club members.

In 35 amateur fights he was beaten only four times.

He was never beaten in 19 professional bouts, and when he retired he was bantamweight champion of the world.

Jimmy won the world title from South African Vic Toweel in November, 1952.

He defended it successfully against Toweel, American Pappy Gault, and in Bangkok against Chamron Sonkitrat.

Carruthers' skilful exhibitions against world class opposition lifted Australian boxing to great heights. If it could produce a few more like him, the sport would never slump.

Jimmy, who even now is only 28 years old, has no regrets about retiring so young.

He says: "I achieved my goal in life by winning the world title, and in earning enough money to set myself up in business.

"I suppose many boxers earned more than I did.

"But most of them kept going just a little too long.

"I have contentment, and that's all anyone can ask."

Carruthers is licensee of a city hotel.

His wife Myra, assists him with the business. They have a son, John Boyd, and a daughter, Gina Gay.

Jimmy rates his return-bout with Toweel as one of the toughest contests of his career. He knocked Toweel out in 10 rounds.

But the bout which will stay longest in his memory was the one in Bangkok against Chamron Sonkitrat.

The boxer's name is actually Chamron. But, over there, a fighter is always called by the gymnasium in which he trains.

For example Vic Patrick would be known as Patrick McQuillan.

Carruthers fought Sonkitrat in cyclonic rain. At times the two opponents could hardly see each other, and it was almost impossible for the boxers to keep their footing.

Yet, once again, Carruthers successfully kept his crown.

Jimmy still acts as boxing-instructor at many boys' clubs.

He says: "I learned to box with the Police Boys' Club, and I still feel that I owe them a lot."

Trust Fund

VICTORIAN swimming authorities are investigating ways to perpetuate the memory of Australia's great record-breaker, the late John Marshall.

As a result of a special carnival at the Melbourne Olympic swimming stadium, plus donations, the sum of £2,500 has been invested on behalf of Marshall's son, John.

The investment will be controlled by the Victorian Amateur Swimming Association trustees, and will be used for the education of young John.

Yale University, which Marshall attended while in America, has started a John Birnie Marshall Memorial Fund.

The aim is to raise 10,000 dollars. The annual income from this, about 400 dollars, will be used to provide a scholarship at Yale.

Preference will be given to boys from Australia, and particularly to Marshall's young son, if he should go to Yale.

REMINDER

DON'T forget the Magazine letter-box, which is No. 1 on the first-floor.

When passing, scribble out some piece of news about yourself, or fellow-members, and drop it in.

STAFF PRAISED

CLUB member D. H. Coop wrote to the Committee, praising the integrity of two of the club's stewards.

Mr. Coop left the fourth floor, not realising he had lost a sum of money.

The stewards involved raced after him and within a minute or so the money had been restored to him.
